TUESDAY EVENING, MAY 21, 1901. FRICTION BETWEEN EDITORS There has recently been a contro versy between Mr. N. G. Gonzales, editor of the Columbia, S. C., State, and Mr. A. B. Williams, of the Richmond News. Mr. Gonzales, in commenting upon the recent offer of the office of upon the recent offer of the office of postmaster to Gen. Wade Hampton, characterized it as an attempt to buy General Hampton. To this Mr. Williams took exception, for as he stated subsequently, he had sugaested the proffer. Mr. Williams essailed the policy of the State in relation to Governor Ellerbe and the public printing. Mr. Gonzales characterized some of these statements as I malicious star. these statements at I"malicious slan dets." A personal correspondence be-tween the editors has since been in progress. On May 13 Mr. Williams

"I have the honor to request of you an immediate retraction of the words 'malicious slanders' and 'contemptible' as applied to statements over my name and written by me, and I request also and written by me, and I request also an apology for using such words in connection with statements by me." He went on to state that he seat this letter within 24 hours after receiving the afront and "under rules governing such matters I am entitled to have your answer dispatched mithin governing such matters I am entitled to have your answer dispatched within 48 hours after receipt of this."

Mr. Gonzales sent a refusal to com-ply, stating, however, that he would retract if Mr. Williams wrote to him that his charges were made under misapprehension or misinformation. It Mr. Williams felt aggrieved and want-Mr. Williams felt nggreved and wanted his blood Mr. Gonzales would meet him at any designated place in another State and let Mr. Williams shoot at him. Mr. Gonzales, not wishing Mr. Williams's blood, would not shoot. He declared he had been preaching obedience to law and could not participate in a duel when he was not aggrieved

Mr. Williams replied that Mr. Gonzales's position "put him in a fortress." And Mr. Gonzales has just answered that he is "very accessible at all times," and an impromptu fight is not more apt to be interferred with than a duel.
